Isn't that Susana's house. Judge not by their words, but accept advice based on the evidence of actual results. In Fate Fixed we follow Lexie through her meeting and binding to Torin, learning what he and is family are, and finding her place in their world. This popular and romantic imagery of heroism in action derives from an inherited Western propensity to favour direct-causal, rational-calculative and high-profile actions over more discreet, indirect and at times understated gestures or responses in engendering a desired outcome. In addition, starting from critical skills for media consumption have become a separate optional subject for high school education, as the result of the advocacy of ActiveWatch.
