In other words, Borgese inherits from De Sanctis the utopist thrust toward the creation of a new world, as it is especially expressed in the essays collected in the three series of La vita e il libro. For this reason, as Carta points out repeatedly, Borgese prefers to draw his inspiration from literary models taken mostly from the last century as Giovanni Verga, and Tolstoj, The March of Fascism, which contains a firm condemnation of Fascism as a phenomenon of degeneration of the Italian traditional culture and identity. She also makes a reference to the document The City of Man.
