That's about it. If no sauce such as vinegar or a gravy of hashed meat is supplied, then this is a little oversight committed by the member of the household who serves the food. I mean women who were trudging across the sands at Normandy, crossing into liberated Paris with tired but triumphant troops, and sneaking out of the Pacific mere steps ahead of the invading Japanese.

Neither do you prevent these things from happening. Many will scoff at these B movies and see nothing to praise, besides the obvious love and soul put into. They were able deal with whatever situation was thrown at them together, as equals - a true partnership. The eternal glory we receive will depend on our faithfulness.
