A few months later, on May 14, after a lifetime of study, travel, and education, Agehananda Bharati died of cancer. What is amazing is that this nameless man should, when everyone else - including the disciples - had given up on Jesus, show such understanding and faith.

In many cases, people who claim to have had an OBE report being on the verge of self. To implement these approaches it is necessary to look at potential barriers and how those barriers might be overcome. If we believe Sir Robert, all this is mistaken.
